Practice

Dear Family,

Ask your child to write the spelling words correctly on the blank lines. As you work with your child to practice this week's spelling words, try the following activity.

And That's How It Happened

To introduce this creative writing activity, you might want to read some of Rudyard Kipling's Just So Stories to your child. These stories are whimsical explanations of how some things came to be, such as why the elephant has a long trunk. Help your child think of something about the world that he or she would like to explain. If necessary, you might suggest one of the following topics:

- Why rabbits have cottontails
- Why the seasons change
- What causes the wind to blow
