

Pronouns for People

Decide whether or not each underlined word is a pronoun. Fill in the circle next to your answer.

1. In school we are learning about E. E. Cummings.
 pronoun not a pronoun
2. He was a famous twentieth-century poet.
 pronoun not a pronoun
3. The teacher has read aloud many of his poems.
 pronoun not a pronoun
4. The poem “in Just—” is my favorite one.
 pronoun not a pronoun
5. I read this poem to my parents one day.
 pronoun not a pronoun
6. They laughed and said it was silly.
 pronoun not a pronoun
7. The poem seemed silly to me, too.
 pronoun not a pronoun
8. But I think that is why I liked it so much!
 pronoun not a pronoun
9. Have you ever read any poems by E. E. Cummings?
 pronoun not a pronoun
10. Who is your favorite poet?
 pronoun not a pronoun

Decide which pronoun could best take the place of the underlined word in each sentence. Fill in the circle next to your answer.

11. Tamika likes to write poetry when Tamika is sad.
 she her
12. Tamika’s parents say that Tamika’s parents like her poetry.
 us they
13. Tamika’s older brother, Ray, calls Tamika “the kid poet.”
 she her
14. Tamika’s older brother, Ray, sometimes draws pictures to go with Tamika’s poems.
 He They
15. Maybe Tamika will read her poems to you and me.
 them us