

Using Adjectives to Compare

Decide whether the underlined word is used correctly in the following sentences. If it is used correctly, choose correct. If it is used incorrectly, choose the correct word. Fill in the circle next to your answer.

1. Yusuf is the taller boy in the class.
 tall     tallest     correct
2. I wonder how he grew so tall!
 taller     tallest     correct
3. Of the girls, Jill has the long hair.
 longer     longest
 correct
4. Is Jill's hair longest than Kelly's? longer     long     correct
5. James has nice brown eyes, but Alex has very bluer eyes.
 blue     bluest     correct
6. Who has the neatest handwriting?
 neat     neater     correct
7. Do you think James or Mark can jump most high?
 higher     more high
 correct
8. This math book is thickest than that science book.
 thick     thicker
 correct
9. Our class is larger than Mr. Haam's class.
 more large     largest
 correct
10. I think Mrs. Martin is the most good teacher in school!
 goodest     best
 correct

Decide whether the underlined word is comparing two things or more than two things. Fill in the circle next to your answer.

11. Your dog, Scout, is faster than my dog, Buddy.
 two things
 more than two things
12. Buddy is bigger than Scout, though.
 two things
 more than two things
13. My cousin's dog, Rex, is the biggest out of the three.
 two things
 more than two things
14. Rex might be big, but Buddy is stronger.
 two things
 more than two things
15. Which of these dogs barks the loudest?
 two things
 more than two things