

Commas in a Series

Decide which sentence uses commas properly. Fill in the circle next to your answer.

1. Aziz, Danielle and I learned how to make cookies.
 Aziz, Danielle, and I learned how to make cookies.
2. We have looked for recipes in cookbooks, and magazines.
 We have looked for recipes in cookbooks and magazines.
3. You make dough with flour, sugar and eggs.
 You make dough with flour, sugar, and eggs.
4. You also use butter, baking soda, and salt.
 You also use, butter, baking soda, and salt.
5. You might add cinnamon, oatmeal, and, raisins.
 You might add cinnamon, oatmeal, and raisins.
6. You can include things like chocolate chips, peanut butter, or toffee.
 You can include things like chocolate, chips, peanut, butter, or toffee.
7. We put oatmeal, cranberries, and pecans in a batch of our cookies.
 We put oatmeal, cranberries, and pecans, in a batch of our cookies.
8. We can bake large, cookies small, cookies or, cookie bars.
 We can bake large cookies, small cookies, or cookie bars.
9. We take our cookies to school, to bake sales, and to parties.
 We take our cookies to school, to bake sales and to parties.
10. One time, we gave cookies to our principal, and our vice principal.
 One time, we gave cookies to our principal and our vice principal.
11. Aziz, Danielle, and I, want to bake other things, too.
 Aziz, Danielle, and I want to bake other things, too.
12. We can make cakes, brownies, and cupcakes.
 We can make cakes brownies, and cupcakes.
13. It's fun to pour, mix, and stir, the ingredients!
 It's fun to pour, mix, and stir the ingredients!
14. Either Aziz's mom, Danielle's mom, or my dad helps us bake.
 Either Aziz's mom, Danielle's mom or my dad, helps us bake.
15. Fun times, good friends, and yummy cookies are my favorite things!
 Fun, times, good, friends, and yummy cookies are my favorite things!