

Prepositional Phrases

Decide which underlined word is a preposition that begins a prepositional phrase. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Joan of Arc was born in France.
A Arc C born
B in D was
2. Her parents were peasants from the countryside.
A from C Her
B the D were
3. Joan heard voices in her head.
A her C heard
B voices D in
4. These voices told her to fight for France.
A told C for
B her D fight
5. At the time, France was fighting England.
A At C fighting
B was D the
6. Joan talked to France's future king.
A talked C future
B to D Joan
7. She asked him to believe in her.
A She C in
B him D believe
8. He gave her permission to fight in the war.
A in C the
B her D fight
9. She gave France an important victory over the English.
A the C an
B important D over
10. The king asked Joan to stop fighting against the English.
A asked C against
B stop D the
11. Against his wishes, Joan kept fighting the British.
A his C kept
B Against D the
12. She soon was captured near Paris.
A She C was
B soon D near
13. The British condemned her to life in prison.
A in C her
B life D The
14. But Joan made them angry at her again.
A But C at
B them D her
15. She was burned at the stake in 1431.
A the C was
B at D She