

Singular and Plural Nouns

Decide whether the underlined word is a singular noun, a plural noun, or a proper noun. If the word is not a noun choose other. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. What do you know about stars?
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
2. Did you know that there are different kinds of stars?
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
3. A protostar is a star that is about to be born.
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
4. It is nothing more than a cloud of gas and dust.
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
5. Once the star is born, it becomes a bright star.
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
6. As a star gets older, it becomes bigger.
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
7. An old star also looks red in color.
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
8. These stars are called red giants.
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
9. The constellation Orion has a red giant.
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
10. Orion's red giant is called Betelgeuse.
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
11. Soon Betelgeuse will become a white dwarf.
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
12. Finally, it will become a black dwarf.
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
13. Star's lives are measured in millions or billions of years!
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
14. The Sun is expected to live for another five billion years!
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other
15. The study of stars is an interesting science.
A singular      C proper
B plural      D other