

Adjectives and Adverbs

Decide whether the underlined word is an adjective, an adverb, or a noun.

Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Every summer, my family has a huge family reunion.
A adjective C noun
B adverb
2. We all meet at the local park.
A adjective C noun
B adverb
3. The family members kindly greet each other.
A adjective C noun
B adverb
4. We work together to create a great picnic.
A adjective C noun
B adverb
5. My father carefully assigns tasks to family volunteers.
A adjective C noun
B adverb
6. Some people cook delicious food, like hamburgers and hot dogs.
A adjective C noun
B adverb
7. Other people choose some fun games for us to play.
A adjective C noun
B adverb
8. Uncle Frank usually organizes a volleyball game.
A adjective C noun
B adverb
9. We have relay races in the big green field.
A adjective C noun
B adverb
10. You have to move quickly if you want to win these races!
A adjective C noun
B adverb
11. After the races, we cool off in the park's public swimming pool.
A adjective C noun
B adverb
12. Then we all eat dinner together.
A adjective C noun
B adverb
13. At night, we sit around a warm campfire.
A adjective C noun
B adverb
14. Every year, Grandpa Jack tells us scary stories!
A adjective C noun
B adverb
15. Uncle Tom usually plays his guitar for us, too.
A adjective C noun
B adverb