

Prepositions That Help Tell Where

Decide which underlined word is a preposition that begins a prepositional phrase. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. What would it be like to live on an island?
A on C it
B an D What
2. Manhattan, a borough in New York City, is an island.
A an C in
B a D is
3. There are islands around the world.
A are C There
B around D the
4. Bali is an island in Indonesia.
A is C island
B an D in
5. Fiji is a group of islands somewhere between New Zealand and Hawaii.
A a C between
B is D somewhere
6. Of course, Hawaii, too, is a group of islands in the Pacific Ocean.
A the C is
B in D too
7. You can see many Pacific islands on a detailed map.
A on C can
B many D see
8. Islands do not float on the ocean's surface.
A do C the
B not D on
9. The ground beneath your feet extends deep into Earth.
A your C deep
B extends D beneath
10. Many islands formed when volcanoes burst through Earth's surface.
A when C through
B burst D Many
11. Some islands still have active volcanoes on their surfaces.
A Some C on
B still D their
12. The island of Sicily is located across the sea from Italy.
A across C The
B is D island
13. Mount Etna, one of Europe's active volcanoes, is on Sicily.
A one C is
B on D Sicily
14. Some volcanoes even exist under the ocean's surface.
A under C even
B Some D the
15. These volcanoes might someday create islands above the water surface.
A might C above
B These D someday