

Whose and Who's

Decide whether the underlined word is used correctly in the following sentences. If it is used correctly, choose correct. If it is used incorrectly, choose the correct word. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Who's whistle is on the table?
A Whose C correct
B Who's
2. It belongs to the person whose going to referee the game.
A whose C correct
B who's
3. Oh! Who's playing tonight?
A Whose C correct
B Who's
4. Who's school are we playing tonight?
A Whose C correct
B Who's
5. Do you know anyone whose on that team?
A whose C correct
B who's
6. Alyssa, who's a friend of my cousin, is on that team.
A whose C correct
B who's
7. Who's job will it be to guard her?
A Whose C correct
B Who's
8. Sarah, who's number is thirty-two, will guard Alyssa.
A whose C correct
B who's
9. Who's the coach for our team?
A Whose C correct
B Who's
10. Mr. Fernandez, whose also a fourth-grade teacher, is our coach.
A whose C correct
B who's
11. Who's basketball is out on the court?
A Whose C correct
B Who's
12. Mr. Newbaum, whose the school maintenance person, owns the ball.
A whose C correct
B who's
13. I wonder whose going to win this game.
A whose C correct
B who's
14. I wonder who's going to come cheer for our team.
A whose C correct
B who's
15. Other students, whose job it is to support their school, will cheer.
A whose C correct
B who's