

Two, Too, To

Decide whether the underlined word is used correctly in the following sentences. If it is used correctly, choose correct. If it is used incorrectly, choose the correct word. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Gerbils and hamsters are too popular kinds of pets.
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
2. Gerbils are rodents, and hamsters are rodents, to.
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
3. Some animals are to difficult to keep as pets.
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
4. But gerbils and hamsters are easy to take care of.
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
5. My parents gave a hamster too my little brother.
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
6. After a few days, I wanted to have one, two.
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
7. Now we have too hamsters in our house!
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
8. Hamsters are to little for taking walks outside.
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
9. But they like too run around inside the house.
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
10. My family's hamsters like to play with each other.
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
11. We decided two let them live in the same cage.
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
12. Now those to hamsters play all of the time!
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
13. Maybe someday we'll get a gerbil, to.
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
14. I think that one can never have two many pets!
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct
15. But my parents say that two pets are enough.
A two                      C to
B too                        D correct