

Making the Subject and Verb Agree

Decide which verb agrees with the underlined subject of each sentence.

Mark your answers on the answer sheet.

1. Professional athletes _____ sports for a living.
A plays C plays
B play
2. People _____ them a salary for their contribution.
A pay C pays
B payes
3. My uncle _____ basketball for the San Antonio Spurs.
A plays C plays
B play
4. We _____ his games all the time.
A watches C watches
B watch
5. He _____ money for his family.
A earns C earns
B earn
6. Sometimes athletes _____ commercials for money, too.
A done C does
B do
7. Both men and women _____ fans in professional sports.
A maked C make
B makes
8. On the WNBA™ basketball court, Lisa Leslie _____ Los Angeles fans.
A thrills C thrill
B thrilles
9. Tiger Woods _____ skill and dignity on the golf course.
A show C showes
B shows
10. On the tennis court, the Williams sisters _____ fans around the world.
A amazees C amaze
B amazes
11. On the football field, NFL™ quarterback Peyton Manning _____ his fans.
A delightes C delights
B delight
12. Many young athletes _____ that they will be pros, too.
A beliefs C believes
B believe
13. Few of these athletes _____ it that far.
A makes C make
B makes
14. Injuries _____ some of these athletes.
A stop C stops
B stopes
15. Only the best athletes _____ professional sports.
A plays C play
B plays