

Commas After Introductory Words

Decide which underlined word should be followed by a comma. If the sentence is correct as it is, choose correct. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Grandma did you like the actor Humphrey Bogart?
A did C Grandma
B you D correct
2. Yes I have seen many of his famous movies.
A I C have
B Yes D correct
3. Trey how do you know about Humphrey Bogart?
A you C how
B Trey D correct
4. Well I saw a special about him on television.
A Well C special
B I D correct
5. Oh did you learn a lot about him and his movies?
A you C Oh
B him D correct
6. Yes I learned that he was in dozens of movies.
A Yes C learned
B I D correct
7. But he only won one Academy Award.
A only C But
B he D correct
8. Didn't he win the award for The African Queen?
A he C win
B Didn't D correct
9. Yes he was the captain of a boat in Africa.
A captain C Yes
B he D correct
10. Hey isn't that where he met his wife Lauren Bacall?
A that C where
B Hey D correct
11. No he was in that movie with Katharine Hepburn.
A he C with
B No D correct
12. He met Lauren Bacall in the movie To Have and Have Not.
A movie C He
B met D correct
13. Well I guess you have learned a lot about Bogart.
A Well C guess
B I D correct
14. Yes I think old movies are really cool.
A old C Yes
B I D correct
15. Trey maybe we can watch old movies together sometime!
A maybe C watch
B Trey D correct