

Direct and Indirect Quotations

Decide whether each sentence uses a direct quotation, an indirect quotation, both, or neither. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. "Have you finished your science report yet?" Jacob asked Isabella.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
2. Isabella explained that she still had some research to do.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
3. "Do you need to go to the library with me?" she asked Jacob.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
4. "That would be great!" Jacob replied.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
5. Isabella and Jacob sat near the science section at the library.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
6. "How long should the report be?" Jacob asked.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
7. "Mrs. Lin said that she wanted us to write three pages," Isabella explained.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
8. Jacob told Isabella that he was almost done.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
9. He explained to her that he just needed to organize his research notes.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
10. Isabella asked, "Do you want to know how I organize my notes?"
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
11. Jacob said that he would love a little advice from her.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
12. Isabella showed Jacob her note cards and explained her method.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
13. "Mrs. Lin explained that we should color-code our note cards," she said.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
14. "Oh yeah! I remember that!" Jacob said.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither
15. Isabella told Jacob that his report looked very interesting.
A direct C both
B indirect D neither