

Direct Objects

Which underlined word is a direct object? If both words are direct objects, choose both. If neither is a direct object, choose neither. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Sal Vasquez chose a new hobby for his New Year's resolution.
A hobby C both
B resolution D neither
2. He collects baseball and football cards.
A baseball C both
B football D neither
3. His father owns a Hank Aaron baseball card from 1957.
A card C both
B 1957 D neither
4. This valuable card gave the idea to Sal.
A idea C both
B Sal D neither
5. He would collect today's sports cards.
A today's C both
B cards D neither
6. When he was his father's age, the cards would earn money for him.
A cards C both
B money D neither
7. Sal learns new facts and figures about sports every day.
A facts C both
B figures D neither
8. Mr. Vasquez and Sal go to baseball games every year.
A Sal C both
B baseball D neither
9. Last week, he watched the Cleveland Indians and the Atlanta Braves.
A Cleveland Indians C both
B Atlanta Braves D neither
10. Sal received autographs from players.
A autographs C both
B from D neither
11. His collection includes sports cards and other sports collectables.
A cards C both
B collectables D neither
12. To store his collection, Sal uses a large trunk.
A large C both
B trunk D neither
13. Mr. Vasquez bought the trunk for Sal.
A trunk C both
B for D neither
14. Some of Sal's friends collect sports cards, too.
A cards C both
B too D neither
15. Sal and his friends talk about their collections all the time.
A friends C both
B time D neither
16. Sometimes they trade items with each other.
A trade C both
B items D neither
17. Sal bought some stamps for his collection.
A stamps C both
B collection D neither
18. These stamps show famous athletes.
A famous C both
B athletes D neither
19. Sal also owns sports books and magazines.
A books C both
B magazines D neither