

Indirect Objects

Decide which underlined word is an indirect object. If none of the words is an indirect object, choose none. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Mom buys us special foods for our lunches.
A us C lunches
B foods D none
2. She gets Coby bananas every week.
A week C Coby
B bananas D none
3. She buys me yogurt since I like it.
A yogurt C buys
B me D none
4. I often give Mom a hug when she pulls them out of the bag!
A often C hug
B Mom D none
5. The yogurt offers me important nutrients that I need in my diet.
A me C nutrients
B important D none
6. Coby eats at least one banana a day.
A day C banana
B least D none
7. Bananas give Coby potassium and other minerals.
A minerals C Coby
B potassium D none
8. Mom packs me one yogurt cup a day.
A one C packs
B me D none
9. She packs Coby one banana in his daily lunch.
A Coby C one
B banana D none
10. But sometimes he will eat one after school, too!
A too C one
B school D none
11. Our science teacher, Mr. Briggs, taught us nutrition information.
A information C us
B nutrition D none
12. He teaches us many facts about food.
A us C food
B facts D none
13. He says that “you are what you eat!”
A that C eat
B you D none
14. Mom and Dad provide good nutrition for our family.
A our C good
B family D none
15. They feed us vegetables every day.
A day C vegetables
B us D none
16. Adults should teach kids food facts.
A kids C food
B facts D none
17. Maybe more kids would grow into healthy adults.
A into C adults
B healthy D none
18. I give my friends valuable nutrition information.
A valuable C friends
B information D none
19. I want them to eat healthfully, too!
A them C too
B eat D none
20. But I cannot teach everyone healthful habits!
A teach C everyone
B habits D none