

Prepositional Phrases

Which underlined word is a preposition that begins a prepositional phrase. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Joe walked through the forest.
A walked C the
B forest D through
2. He wanted to see some birds in the trees.
A in C birds
B some D trees
3. Joe was studying birds in his science class.
A in C birds
B was D his
4. His teacher told the class to research birds at the library.
A told C His
B at D class
5. Today, Joe wanted to see birds in the wild, not just in a book.
A just B not C in D see
6. He had a pair of binoculars.
A had B of C a D pair
7. He found a patch of grass by a stream where he could watch for birds.
A a C could
B where D by
8. Joe had borrowed a book from the library about birds.
A a C about
B had D the
9. He leaned against the tree and skimmed through the book.
A and C against
B the D tree
10. The book was filled with illustrations.
A with C book
B was D The
11. Joe studied one bird from the book.
A book C one
B the D from
12. He looked at the illustration and read through the description.
A through C the
B read D and
13. He peered through his binoculars into the trees.
A the C his
B into D peered
14. Joe saw many types of birds.
A types C of
B many D saw
15. But he did not see the bird he picked from the book.
A But C the
B not D from
16. He made a list of the birds he saw.
A saw B of C the D list
17. Joe brought the list to school the next day.
A to B the C next D day
18. He shared the list with his teacher.
A the C his
B with D teacher
19. His teacher looked over the list very carefully.
A very C the
B list D over
20. He asked Joe to tell the rest of the class about his experience.
A rest C about
B tell D his