

Plural and Possessive Nouns

Decide whether the underlined word in each sentence is a singular noun, a plural noun, or a possessive noun. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Mr. Jornee's bulletin board says, "May is a Month of Music."
A singular B plural C possessive
2. Mr. Jornee is one of our fifth-grade teachers.
A singular B plural C possessive
3. He decorated his room with pictures of musical notes and instruments.
A singular B plural C possessive
4. Ms. Seaborne, our other fifth-grade teacher, is also celebrating music this month.
A singular B plural C possessive
5. There will be a special field trip this month.
A singular B plural C possessive
6. The entire class will attend a performance by the city's symphony orchestra.
A singular B plural C possessive
7. Some parents will go on the field trip with the class.
A singular B plural C possessive
8. The orchestra will perform Haydn's Toy Symphony.
A singular B plural C possessive
9. The class will write journal entries about their field trip.
A singular B plural C possessive
10. The fifth-grade students are also writing reports about musical instruments.
A singular B plural C possessive
11. The students drew their topics from a hat.
A singular B plural C possessive
12. Jesse's topic is the saxophone.
A singular B plural C possessive
13. We all laughed when he drew that topic.
A singular B plural C possessive
14. Jesse has played the saxophone for two years!
A singular B plural C possessive
15. I am writing about the clarinet, a woodwind musical instrument.
A singular B plural C possessive
16. I have learned a lot of interesting things about this instrument.
A singular B plural C possessive
17. For example, the clarinet's development happened over three hundred years ago!
A singular B plural C possessive
18. I have also listened to a performance of Mozart's clarinet concerto.
A singular B plural C possessive
19. We students will give oral presentations of our reports.
A singular B plural C possessive
20. Because I love music, I look forward to hearing every report!
A singular B plural C possessive