

That, Which, Who

Decide which word best completes each sentence. If who, that, or which does not make sense in a sentence, choose answer none. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Today we will learn about some inventions _____ we use today.
A who C which
B that D none
2. The Egyptians, _____ invented many things, created the first marshmallows.
A who C which
B that D none
3. They used the roots of the marsh mallow, _____ is a mallow plant growing in marshy areas.
A who C which
B that D none
4. So, _____ is where the name marshmallow comes from!
A who C which
B that D none
5. Another invention by the ancient Egyptians is _____ scissors.
A who C which
B that D none
6. Archaeologists, _____ study Egypt carefully, unearthed tools like scissors.
A who C which
B that D none
7. These scissors, _____ were made from one piece of metal, did not look like our scissors.
A who C which
B that D none
8. Scissors _____ look more like ours today were made by the ancient Romans.
A who C which
B that D none
9. Think about the person _____ tried out the first parachute!
A who C which
B that D none
10. _____ must have been a brave person!
A who C which
B that D none
11. Leonardo da Vinci, _____ is known for his painting Mona Lisa, had an idea for a parachute.
A who C which
B that D none
12. It took over two hundred years _____ anyone else to try out the idea of a parachute.
A who C which
B that D none
13. The first parachute experiments, _____ were from a hot-air balloon, occurred during the late 1700s.
A who C which
B that D none
14. The use of parachutes, _____ we use them today, was in the early 1900s.
A who C which
B that D none
15. In 1912, Albert Berry, _____ was a captain in the U.S. Army, jumped out of an airplane and lived.
A who C which
B that D none
16. The game of basketball was invented by James Naismith, _____ was a physical education teacher.
A who C which
B that D none