

Pronouns in Pairs

Decide which subject or object pronoun would best complete each sentence. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Mr. Wu, our science teacher, asked Patrick and _____ to explain our science project.
A I B me C us D them
2. _____ and I built a model drawbridge.
A We B Us C He D Him
3. Patrick and _____ are both interested in history.
A me B we C I D you
4. When the class was choosing topics, Mr. Wu and _____ decided on the drawbridge.
A us B she C you D we
5. My friend Ananda suggested the topic, and it sounded exciting to Mr. Wu and _____.
A we B us C they D he
6. Ananda chose a different topic for her partner, Audrey, and _____.
A she B it C her D they
7. Audrey and _____ built a tornado, and their project actually created a funnel cloud!
A she B her C them D him
8. It was a very exciting moment for Mr. Wu and _____, and they won first place in our science fair.
A we B they C you D them
9. Mr. Wu and _____ might try to get their tornado into the state science fair.
A they B me C you D us
10. The project made by Patrick and _____ won second place.
A I B us C we D me
11. Ananda, Audrey, Patrick and _____ were grinning from ear to ear!
A me B them C I D us
12. It was a proud moment for Ananda and Audrey and for _____.
A they B I C we D us
13. My parents were in the crowd, and they clapped for the other students and _____.
A we B us C she D he
14. Mom drove Patrick and _____ to the library while we were completing the project.
A me B I C they D we
15. Dad and _____ helped pay for my share of the project's supplies.
A her B she C it D us
16. Patrick's parents were there, too. My parents and _____ sat near each other.
A them B us C they D you
17. After the science fair, Mr. Wu gave a second-place ribbon to Patrick and _____.
A I B we C they D me
18. Patrick and _____ do not have to share the ribbon because we each got one.
A me B us C we D I
19. After the fair, Principal Gwynn congratulated Mr. Wu and _____.
A us B we C they D I
20. The way _____ and Mr. Wu smiled at us showed that they were impressed by all of our hard work.
A him B he C we D us