

Compound Subjects and Compound Predicates

Decide whether the underlined words in each sentence are a compound subject, compound predicate, both, or neither. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Last summer, I went to Las Vegas and visited the Hoover Dam.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
2. The dam and famous Lake Mead are less than an hour from Las Vegas.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
3. Lake Mead was created and is maintained by the Hoover Dam.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
4. We went on a tour of the dam and its surrounding areas.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
5. The government and tour companies give area tours.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
6. Adults and children are welcomed and encouraged to participate in the tour.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
7. On the first day, we took the tour offered by the government.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
8. My parents and I were amazed by the size of the dam!
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
9. The huge generators hummed and whirled as they created electricity.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
10. We visited during July, and it was very hot and sunny.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
11. Mom and Dad prepared and packed sunscreen for all of us.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
12. The tour guide and our group took a walk across the top of the dam!
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
13. The Hoover Dam is amazing and frightening all at the same time!
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
14. Our tour guide led the tour and shared facts and trivia about the dam.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
15. He pointed to Lake Mead and explained that it was manmade.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
16. The lake and its shoreline occupy and beautify the land for miles!
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
17. Construction of the dam began in 1931 and was completed in 1936.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither
18. Engineers and builders worked very hard on the project.
A compound subject C both
B compound predicate D neither