

Direct and Indirect Objects

Is the underlined word (or words) in each sentence a direct object, an indirect object, or a compound direct object? Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Mrs. Lin planned a field trip.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
2. A few parents helped Mrs. Lin during the field trip.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
3. Buses brought the students and the adults to the local history museum.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
4. Several students gave the adults a lot of trouble.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
5. These students wanted attention from the rest of us.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
6. Mrs. Lin gave each student two detentions for poor behavior.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
7. When we arrived, the museum guide gave us a big smile.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
8. He explained the rules and the regulations of the museum.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
9. Then, we began the tour.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
10. We passed an exhibit about farming.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
11. Mekhi asked the guide a question about an old barn.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
12. The guide gave Mekhi an explanation.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
13. Mekhi offered the guide his thanks for answering his question.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
14. At noon, we ate lunch with students from other schools.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
15. The museum fed us hamburgers and hot dogs.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
16. After lunch, we explored the remaining sections of the museum.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
17. I most enjoyed the room about famous people from our area.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
18. After the tour, the guide gave each student a T-shirt from the museum!
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object
19. He also gave each adult a museum calendar.
A direct object      C compound
B indirect object      direct object