

Predicate Nouns and Predicate Adjectives

Decide whether the underlined word is a predicate noun, a predicate adjective, or a direct object. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. My favorite fruit is the strawberry.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
2. Most strawberries are cone-shaped.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
3. A ripe strawberry is very red.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
4. My mom buys strawberries every summer.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
5. My family makes many treats with strawberries.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
6. The most popular is the strawberry shortcake.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
7. I think everyone has heard of the strawberry shortcake!
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
8. It is a combination of strawberries, cake, and whipped cream.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
9. Another treat is strawberry Jello[™].
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
10. My mom combines Jello[™], strawberries, and bananas.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
11. Mom and I make strawberry pie, too.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
12. My brother's favorite fruit is the apple.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
13. A Fuji apple is crispy and sweet.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
14. My mom's apple pie recipe is the best!
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
15. My dad is weird when it comes to fruits.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
16. He enjoys pomegranates more than any other fruit!
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
17. He says that they are a challenging fruit.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
18. Pomegranates are seed fruits.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
19. Tiny sacs inside the fruit hold the seeds.
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective
20. It is hard work to eat one!
A pred. noun C direct object
B pred. adjective