

Personal, Compound, Possessive Pronouns

Is the underlined word a personal pronoun, compound pronoun, or possessive pronoun? If it is none of those, choose none. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Jack Nicklaus is known for his amazing golf games.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
2. He was born in 1940 in Columbus, OH.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
3. He started to make a name for himself when he won the U.S Amateur Open.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
4. This was considered a major win at that time in golf's history.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
5. The world of golf knew they had a rising star on their hands.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
6. My physical education teacher told us about Nicklaus.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
7. Our class learned about several other golfers as well.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
8. There was a rivalry between Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
9. Their paths crossed on many tournaments.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
10. I wonder if they were ever friends.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
11. Both men and women challenge themselves through the game of golf.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
12. Women have their own golf association called the LPGA.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
13. My class learned about this association.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
14. The Lady's Professional Golf Association got its start in 1950.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
15. We learned that there were thirteen original members.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
16. They not only played golf, but they also organized the tournaments.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
17. Women golfers should consider themselves lucky that the LPGA was founded.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none
18. Think of these golf legends the next time you watch a women's tournament.
A personal                      C possessive
B compound                      D none