

Interrogative and Indefinite Pronouns

Is the underlined word an interrogative pronoun, an indefinite pronoun, a personal pronoun, or none of these? Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Who sings the song “(Sittin’ On) The Dock of the Bay”?
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
2. Everyone knows that it was Otis Redding!
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
3. When did that song first play on the radio?
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
4. It was first played in 1967.
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
5. Few know that Otis Redding died before that song was released.
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
6. What caused his death?
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
7. In 1967, Redding was on a concert tour, and he died in a plane crash.
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
8. Most felt that his death was a tragedy.
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
9. Redding was only twenty-six, and he died just when he was finding success.
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
10. What else did Otis Redding sing?
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
11. Almost no one knows that Redding wrote the song “Respect.”
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
12. This song became a big hit for Aretha Franklin.
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
13. Redding wrote and recorded the song, but she is the one who made it popular.
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
14. Who sounds like Otis Redding?
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
15. Some think that Sam Cooke sounds like Otis Redding.
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
16. But actually it was Sam Cooke that inspired Otis Redding!
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
17. What songs did Sam Cooke sing?
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
18. He is famous for “You Send Me,” “Cupid,” and “Chain Gang.”
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none
19. Many say that Sam Cooke inspired them to become musicians.
A interrogative C personal
B indefinite D none