

Steel and Steal

If the underlined word is used incorrectly, choose the correct word. If it is used correctly, choose correct. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. I would like to steel your attention for a moment to talk about a famous metal.
A steel    B steal    C correct
2. This metal is not gold but steel.
A steel    B steal    C correct
3. Steal is not an element like gold or iron is.
A steel    B steal    C correct
4. Steal is not like lead, nickel, and copper.
A steel    B steal    C correct
5. But iron is one of the main ingredients in steel.
A steel    B steal    C correct
6. In the late 1800s, steel helped build the railroads.
A steel    B steal    C correct
7. Steel was also used to build other things, like buildings.
A steel    B steal    C correct
8. You cannot steel a glimpse at the history of skyscrapers without learning about this metal.
A steel    B steal    C correct
9. In fact, the Empire State Building is made of around 60,000 tons of steel!
A steel    B steal    C correct
10. And without steal, the Golden Gate Bridge would not be very magnificent!
A steel    B steal    C correct
11. Henry Bessemer made it easier for factories to produce large quantities of steel.
A steel    B steal    C correct
12. The idea for this process of producing steel came from William Kelly.
A steel    B steal    C correct
13. Bessemer did not steel the idea; he bought the patent from Kelly and improved it.
A steel    B steal    C correct
14. The modern “Bessemer Process” for making steel was named after Henry Bessemer.
A steel    B steal    C correct
15. People tried to steel his idea.
A steel    B steal    C correct
16. A man named Andrew Carnegie built the steel industry in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
A steel    B steal    C correct
17. Carnegie did not steel Bessemer’s idea, but invested a lot of money in it.
A steel    B steal    C correct
18. Soon Carnegie’s company produced more steel than the entire country of England.
A steel    B steal    C correct
19. Pittsburgh does not steal the top spot in the history of this industry.
A steel    B steal    C correct
20. Other cities, such as Youngstown, OH, and Bethlehem, PA, were also successful steel-making towns.
A steel    B steal    C correct