

Hear and Here

If the underlined word is used incorrectly, choose the correct word. If it is used correctly, choose correct. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Did you here that Erika is moving to New Orleans?
A here B hear C correct
2. She will be here for a few more weeks.
A here B hear C correct
3. I wonder if I can find a book hear in the library about New Orleans?
A here B hear C correct
4. Oh, look! Hear is one on the travel shelf.
A here B hear C correct
5. I will stay here for a while and read it.
A here B hear C correct
6. The book says that you can hear many different types of music in New Orleans.
A here B hear C correct
7. I'd like to here some jazz music!
A here B hear C correct
8. Maybe Erika will here a jazz band there.
A here B hear C correct
9. I wonder if Erika is hear yet?
A here B hear C correct
10. She told me she would be here at 3 o'clock.
A here B hear C correct
11. Here are a few more books about New Orleans.
A here B hear C correct
12. When Erika gets hear, I will show them to her.
A here B hear C correct
13. I would love to here more about New Orleans.
A here B hear C correct
14. I'd like to here all of the different types of music.
A here B hear C correct
15. Did you here about the food there?
A here B hear C correct
16. Here is a section about food and culture.
A here B hear C correct
17. This book says that you might here a different dialect when you go to New Orleans.
A here B hear C correct
18. I think I hear Erika now!
A here B hear C correct
19. She is here right on time!
A here B hear C correct
20. We will be hear all night looking through these books.
A here B hear C correct