

Writing Sentences Correctly

Decide whether each sentence is a declarative, interrogative, imperative, or exclamatory. Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

1. Are you a fan of car racing?
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
2. Hey, I love NASCAR!
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
3. NASCAR stands for the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing.
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
4. What is a stock car?
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
5. Look up the definition on the Internet.
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
6. Basically, it is a race car that is like cars that people drive.
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
7. In other words, stock cars are not specially made race cars.
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
8. But aren't NASCAR cars made to race?
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
9. Today, stock cars are different from when the term came into use.
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
10. I bet you can't win the Daytona 500 in your mom's car.
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
11. NASCAR drivers drive nearly two hundred miles per hour!
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
12. Do not try those speeds off the race course.
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
13. You will also need a special car and protective gear to drive that fast.
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
14. I'm a huge fan of Jeff Gordon!
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
15. Is he a NASCAR driver?
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
16. Yes, he races against Kyle Petty, Jimmie Johnson, and Dale Earnhardt Jr.
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
17. Watch NASCAR on television.
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
18. I bet you'll love it!
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
19. There is much more to racing than just driving very fast in a circle.
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory
20. Visit the NASCAR Web site to learn more about the sport.
A declarative C imperative
B interrogative D exclamatory