Dear Family,

Ask your child to write the spelling words correctly on the blank lines. As you work with your child to practice this week's spelling words, try the following activity.

Guess What? The first few weeks of school are exciting for children. Encourage your child to share new impressions with friends or relatives by writing letters. Grandparents and other older relatives will especially enjoy correspondence from your child!

Your child may need to use invented spellings in his or her letters. Be supportive rather than critical of these spellings. Generating a comfortable, relaxed, and uncritical atmosphere will help your child realize that you value his or her ideas and impressions.
