

Adjectives That Tell How Many

Is the underlined word a noun or an adjective? Fill in the circle next to your answer.

1. Our class is doing reports on animals.
 noun adjective
2. Three students will work in a group.
 noun adjective
3. We will research two kinds of sloths.
 noun adjective
4. Both kinds of sloths have similar names.
 noun adjective
5. The two-toed sloth is bigger than the other.
 noun adjective
6. It weighs about twenty pounds.
 noun adjective
7. They live in Central and South America.
 noun adjective
8. The other kind is the three-toed sloth.
 noun adjective
9. It weighs about nine pounds.
 noun adjective
10. All sloths have three back toes.
 noun adjective
11. The difference is in their front toes.
 noun adjective
12. The three-toed sloth also lives in Central and South America.
 noun adjective
13. These animals live their lives upside down!
 noun adjective
14. They hang from trees with their three back toes.
 noun adjective
15. Most sloths rarely leave the trees.
 noun adjective