

Periods and Exclamation Points

Read each sentence, and look closely at the end punctuation. Decide whether each sentence is a telling sentence, a command, or an exclamation. Fill in the circle next to your answer.

- 1. Tell me about your favorite school subject.
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 2. I love art class!
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 3. We have art class once a week.
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 4. I wish we had it every day!
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 5. This week we drew cartoons.
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 6. Let me see your cartoon.
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 7. Here it is!
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 8. My cartoon has words in it, too.
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 9. Your cartoon is great!
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 10. Please draw a cartoon for me.
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 11. I can draw a cartoon for you now.
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 12. Here it is.
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 13. This cartoon is awesome!
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 14. Maybe you will be an artist someday.
 telling                       command
 exclamation
- 15. I am already an artist!
 telling                       command
 exclamation