

Commas in a Series

Which word should be followed by a comma? If a comma should come after both words, choose both. If the sentence is correct, choose correct. Fill in the circle next to your answer.

1. My mother, my brother and I are in the kitchen.
 brother both
 I correct
2. We want to make something easy yummy, and good for us.
 easy both
 good correct
3. I am here to watch help and eat!
 watch both
 help correct
4. Should we make cookies brownies, or muffins?
 cookies both
 or correct
5. We could also make donuts, cakes or fruit bars.
 also both
 cakes correct
6. You can call them treats, snacks, or goodies.
 them both
 or correct
7. Grab a bowl a spoon and a baking sheet.
 bowl both
 spoon correct
8. We need eggs, flour and sugar.
 need both
 flour correct
9. We also need milk, butter and baking soda.
 also both
 butter correct
10. What is the best way to stir, mix, or blend the ingredients?
 way both
 blend correct
11. Use a spoon a fork, or hands.
 spoon both
 or correct
12. Let's include oatmeal, raisins, and chocolate chips!
 include both
 chocolate correct
13. Also use nuts seeds, or fruit.
 nuts both
 or correct
14. Do you bake cook or fry them?
 bake both
 cook correct
15. Cookies, cakes and muffins are baked.
 cakes both
 muffins correct